

Wonderware Certified Application Developer Program

Certified Application Developer Program Enrollment Form

Instructions for Completion:

1. If have not registered for access to TEAM Invensys and the Technical Support sites, please have your developer register at: <http://wwdotprod02.wonderware.com/imoo/index.aspx> before sending in their developer applications.
2. Each developer must use their work email address to register. The Team Wonderware website does not support multiple accounts meaning there can only be only one user per email registration. No Yahoo, Hotmail, Gmail, accounts are acceptable. Complete the application by filling in the blanks in the form below. (Please type)
3. Once a developer is registered for testing, they are registered for all products testing regardless of what exam they chose to take.
4. When you receive your exam instructions, please keep them for future reference. Sign the agreement and return the application to siprogram@invensys.com .
