

SYSTEMS INTEGRATOR PROGRAM CERTIFICATION LEVEL REQUIREMENTS

A summary of the requirements for each level is as follows:

Registered Systems Integrator:

- Contact your local Wonderware distributor and have them sponsor your application.
- Purchase and maintain an annual Comprehensive Support subscription from your distributor.
- Purchase and maintain current Wonderware consignment licenses from your distributor.

Certified Systems Integrator – InTouch:

- Meet the requirements for the Registered Systems Integrator level above, plus:
- Submit proof of two successful installations with the Wonderware InTouch product. Provide customer contacts for verification.
- Maintain at least two Wonderware Certified Developers on staff who are certified on InTouch and Wonderware Historian Server, These can be the same two developers, four different developers or any combination. Employees become Wonderware Certified Developers by passing our product certification exams which are available online or at distributor sites.
- You must promote Wonderware products as your preferred solution and represent Wonderware products in a professional manner.
- To remain certified at this advanced level, you must successfully implement at least one Wonderware application annually. Submit a summary of the application project to your local Wonderware Distributor including a customer reference for this application before the end of the current certification period.

Certified Systems Integrator – System Platform:

- Meet the requirements for the Registered Systems Integrator level above, plus:
- Submit proof of two successful installations involving Wonderware System Platform and provide customer contacts for verification
- Maintain at least two Wonderware Certified Developers on staff who are certified on InTouch OR InTouch for System Platform, Wonderware Historian Server and Application Server These can be the same two developers, six different developers or any combination. We also recommend two developers successfully pass the Information server exams but this is not a requirement. Employees become Wonderware Certified Developers by passing our product certification exams which are available online or at distributor sites.
- You must promote Wonderware products as your preferred solution and represent Wonderware products in a professional manner.
- To remain certified at this advanced level, you must successfully implement at least one System Platform application annually. Submit a summary of the application project to your local Wonderware Distributor including a customer reference for this application before the end of the current certification period.

Certified Systems Integrator – Performance:

- Meet the requirements for the Registered Systems Integrator level above, plus:
- Submit proof of two successful installations involving Performance software and provide customer contacts for verification
- Maintain at least two Wonderware Certified Developers on staff who are certified on InTouch, OR InTouch for System Platform, Wonderware Historian Server, Application Server and MES Performance. These can be the same two developers, eight different developers or any combination. We also recommend two developers successfully pass the Information server exams but this is not a requirement. Employees become Wonderware Certified Developers by passing our product certification exams which are available online or at distributor sites.

- You must promote Wonderware products as your preferred solution and represent Wonderware products in a professional manner.
- To remain certified at this advanced level, you must successfully implement at least one Performance application annually. Submit a summary of the application project to your local Wonderware Distributor including a customer reference for this application before the end of the current certification period.

Certified Systems Integrator – Operations:

- Meet the requirements for the Registered Systems Integrator level above, plus:
- Submit proof of two successful installations involving Operations software and provide customer contacts for verification
- Maintain at least two Wonderware Certified Developers on staff who are certified on InTouch, OR InTouch for System Platform, Wonderware Historian Server, Application Server, and MES Operations. These can be the same two developers, eight different developers or any combination. We also recommend two developers successfully pass the Information server exams but this is not a requirement. Employees become Wonderware Certified Developers by passing our product certification exams which are available online or at distributor sites. .
- You must promote Wonderware products as your preferred solution and represent Wonderware products in a professional manner.
- To remain certified at this advanced level, you must successfully implement at least one Operations application annually. Submit a summary of the application project to your local Wonderware Distributor including a customer reference for this application before the end of the current certification period.

Certified Systems Integrator – Operations & Performance:

- Meet the requirements for the Registered Systems Integrator level above, plus:
- Submit proof of two successful installations involving Operations & Performance software and provide customer contacts for verification
- Maintain at least two Wonderware Certified Developers on staff who are certified on InTouch, OR InTouch for System Platform, Wonderware Historian Server, Application Server, MES Performance and MES Operations. These can be the same two developers, ten different developers or any combination. We also recommend two developers successfully pass the Information server exams but this is not a requirement. Employees become Wonderware Certified Developers by passing our product certification exams which are available online or at distributor sites.
- You must promote Wonderware products as your preferred solution and represent Wonderware products in a professional manner.
- To remain certified at this advanced level, you must successfully implement at least one Operations & Performance application annually. Submit a summary of the application project to your local Wonderware Distributor including a customer reference for this application before the end of the current certification period.

Certified Systems Integrator – IntelaTrac ®:

- Meet the requirements for the Registered Systems Integrator level, plus:
- Submit proof of two successful installations involving IntelaTrac and provide customer contacts for verification
- Maintain at least two Wonderware Certified Developers on staff who have successfully passed the IntelaTrac certification exams.
- You must promote Wonderware products as your preferred solution and represent Wonderware products in a professional manner.

- To remain certified at this advanced level, you must successfully implement at least one IntelaTrac application annually. Submit a summary of the application project to your local Wonderware Distributor including a customer reference for this application before the end of the current certification period.